JOINT INTELLIGENCE STAFF

ORGANIZATION

1. The Joint Intelligence Staff (J.I.S.) is the permanent working committee of the Joint Intelligence Committee.

MEMBERSHIP

2. The Joint Intelligence Staff shall consist of one or more full-time members detailed by each member of the Joint Intelligence Committee, the number to be determined from time to time by committee agreement. The staff will shall function as a committee under the chairmanship of the senior Army-or-Navy member.

3. The full-time members of the staff will occupy a joint office. They shall be assigned no other duty within their respective services which will interfere with their duties as Joint Intelligence Staff members, nor shall they be required to serve as members of other agencies of the Joint Chiefs of Staff nor on any subcommittee not appointed by the Joint Intelligence Committee.

4. The members of the Joint Intelligence Committee may designate additional members of the staff to whom the restrictions stated in paragraph 3 need not apply.

FUNCTIONS

5. As the permanent working committee of the Joint Intelligence Committee, the Joint Intelligence Staff will shall:

a. Prepare responses to the directives and requests addressed to the Committee, and to other papers, as directed by the Committee, for Committee approval.

b. Make recommendations to the Committee, as occasion may require.

RESTRICTED

Enclosure "B"

c. Act for the Committee in such matters as the Committee may delegate to it.

6. The Joint Intelligence Staff will shall also respond directly to requests addressed to it by Joint Chiefs of Staff agencies on its own level. The Joint Intelligence Committee shall be kept informed of such responses with a view to Committee action where appropriate.

PROCEDURE

7. The Joint Intelligence Staff will shall:

a. Establish its own methods of procedure.

b. Maintain close liaison with the planning agencies of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in order to make joint intelligence readily available in the preparation of joint plans.

c. Enter upon all deliberations with instructions from no source other than the Joint Intelligence Committee. In their deliberations they will present their views regardless of rank or service and will shall endeavor to reach composite solutions.

d. If unable to reach agreement promptly, submit to the Joint Intelligence Committee a report indicating wherein the members disagree in order that the Committee may take appropriate action.

~~a. The Joint Intelligence Staff will maintain close liaison with the planning agencies of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in order to make joint intelligence readily available in the preparation of joint plans.~~

~~c. The Joint Intelligence Staff is authorized to request of all service and governmental agencies the information and assistance which may be required in connection with its duties.~~

8. The Joint Intelligence Staff is authorized to:

a. Request information, intelligence and assistance, which may be required in connection with its duties, from all governmental agencies and activities.
